

CLOSURE OF FALLSVIEW CASINO RESORT AND CASINO NIAGARA

(Niagara Falls, ON) January 3, 2022 - In light of the new restrictions announced today by the Government of Ontario, Fallsview Casino Resort and Casino Niagara will temporarily close all casino and resort operations as of Wednesday, January 5 at 12:01am.

"Since re-opening, Niagara Casinos has welcomed back our guests and associates with their health and safety being our top priority" said Richard Taylor, President, Niagara Casinos. "We are working diligently with the OLG, and can confirm that we are in the process of an orderly shutdown of all our operations", said Taylor.

Niagara Casinos continues to work closely with the Ontario Government and Public Health partners to protect customers and associates against the spread of COVID-19 within our community and are currently working through the logistics to implement this closure.

Further updates on when the casino will re-open, taking into account guidance from public health authorities, will be available in the coming weeks.

Customers can continue to monitor the Fallsview Casino Resort and Casino Niagara websites and social media channels for future updates and any questions they may have.
