SPORTS BETTING AT NIAGARA CASINOS STARTS NOW

(Niagara Falls, ON) November 16, 2022 – Sports betting launched today with 21 kiosks at Fallsview Casino Resort. An additional 15 kiosks will launch at Casino Niagara on November 23rd.

“We are excited to be offering this highly-anticipated service to our guests,” says Niagara Casinos’ Vice President of Operations, Steve Weel. “People have been waiting for this for quite some time and now we are delivering.”

Niagara Casinos announced today that user-friendly kiosks located on the gaming floor at Fallsview are now open to accept wagers. To launch the kiosks, Mayor Jim Diodati placed the first legal sports bet at Niagara Casinos, which was $20 on the Toronto Argonauts to win the Grey Cup.

Kiosks at Casino Niagara will launch on November 23rd. Located at the LEV2L Sports Bar, sports fans will be able to watch games while enjoying a selection of game day food and beverage choices.

The touch-screen kiosks at both properties will allow bets to be placed on all major North American sports and a variety of other major sporting events including the World Cup. Single event wagering, parlays, props and more betting options are available. Bets may also be placed at the Sports Betting windows.

Sports Betting Ambassadors will be available at both properties to answer any questions sports enthusiasts may have regarding games, betting options or to take bets.

“To now be able to offer sports betting for Fallsview and Casino Niagara guests is quite a thrill and a milestone that was a long time in the making,” said Richard Taylor, President, Niagara Casinos. “This day wouldn’t have been possible without the partnership of the OLG, the Province of Ontario and the AGCO. This gaming expansion will bring jobs, excitement and other positive economic impacts to Niagara Casinos and the Niagara Region, and we can’t wait to hit the ground running.”

Fallsview is also expecting to open a Sportsbook in late 2023.
